MANY FIGHTERS OF COVID SPREADING HAVE BEEN REMOVED WITH VIOLENCE

A top Russian scientist who was working on a Covid-19 vaccine has been found dead in suspicious circumstances in St Petersburg, adding one more to the list of people engaged in coronavirus research dropping dead mysteriously. Alexander 'Sasha' Kagansky, 45, was reported to have fallen in his underwear from a 14th floor window of a high rise flat – and was found with stab wounds.

Russian scientist Alexander Kagansky Assassinated

The Russian biologist had close links to Edinburgh University and had been working in the city for 13 years until at least 2017. The Russian Investigative Committee has opened a murder probe and a 45-year-old male suspect has been detained, according to Moskovsky Komsomolets (MK). Dr Kagansky had served as Director of the Centre for Genomic and Regenerative Medicine at Russia's Far Eastern Federal University in Vladivostok, where he continued research collaboration with the Scottish university. MK reported that the academic had been "developing a vaccine against coronavirus" and that he died "under strange circumstances". The report goes on to claim cops believed a "scuffle" had taken place before Kagansky fell. He had recently received a Russian grant to study new ways of diagnosing and treating malignant brain tumours, and was an advocate of research into the uses of herbs and mushrooms as a cancer treatment.

List of Assassinations of COVID-19 Researchers

The death of the Russian scientist adds to the list of people engaged in coronavirus research dropping dead in mysterious circumstances.

Canadian Scientist Frank Plummer

In early February, renowned scientist Frank Plummer who received Saudi SARS Coronavirus sample and was working on Coronavirus (HIV) vaccine in the Winnipeg based Canadian lab was assassinated in Kenya soon after it was revealed in GreatGameIndia investigation that Frank Plummer was the key to the Chinese Biological Espionage case at Winnipeg's National Microbiology Laboratory. It was from this Canadian lab that coronavirus was smuggled by Chinese Biowarfare agents and weaponized in Wuhan.

WHO driver carrying Coronavirus samples shot dead

A WHO driver carrying Coronavirus samples was shot dead in Myanmar, in May. The World Health Organization (WHO) vehicle carrying coronavirus test samples came under attack, leaving the driver dead and a government official seriously injured. Pyae Sone Win Maung was driving a well-marked United Nations vehicle when it was hit by gunfire in Rakhine State.

Professor Bing Liu, University of Pittsburgh

In May, Professor Bing Liu of the University of Pittsburgh who was on the verge of a breakthrough in scientific understanding of the new coronavirus was shot dead. He was found in his townhouse with gunshot wounds to the head, neck, torso and extremities. "Bing was on the verge of making very significant findings toward understanding the cellular mechanisms that underlie SARS-CoV-2 infection and the cellular basis of the following complications," his colleagues at the university's Department of Computational and Systems Biology said in a statement.

Gita Ramjee, an HIV scientist

Gita Ramjee, an HIV scientist died of Coronavirus when she was in London to deliver a lecture in March. On her return to South Africa she felt unwell and was hospitalised. Her specialisation in HIV prevention and treatment research led her to lead the expansion of phase I through phase

III HIV prevention and treatment clinical trials in the greater Durban area as the Clinical Trials Unit Principal Investigator.

Vaccine Whistleblower Brandy Vaughan

Vaccine whistleblower Brandy Vaughan, a former sales executive for the pharmaceutical company Merck and the founder of learntherisk.org, a website dedicated to educating people on the risks associated with vaccines, was found dead in her home beside her nine-year-old son on December 8. On Monday, the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office announced an investigation into the circumstances surrounding her death.

Person of Interest in Coronavirus Investigation

There are also those researchers of interest who could be investigated for their shady role in manufacturing the worldwide pandemic of fear. Below we highlight a couple of them who are key to Coronavirus investigation.

Peter Daszak, EcoHealth Alliance

The President of EcoHealth Alliance, Peter Daszak is the one who orchestrated the myth that COVID-19 is natural in origin. Emails obtained by U.S. Right to Know show that a statement in The Lancet authored by 27 prominent public health scientists condemning “conspiracy theories suggesting that COVID-19 does not have a natural origin” was organized by employees of EcoHealth Alliance. EcoHealth Alliance interestingly is the same non-profit group that received millions of dollars of U.S. taxpayer funding to genetically manipulate coronaviruses with scientists at the Wuhan Institute of Virology.

Dutch Virologist Ron Fouchier

Dutch Virologist Ron Fouchier is a controversial figure in the field of Viroscience. He created world's deadliest virus strain and his research sparked a global controversy to de-fund and shutdown such experiments. Experts have raised concerns legally that such experiments could not only lead to a global pandemic but could also lead to bio-terrorism. However, Ron Fouchier is also a key to the COVID-19 investigation. He isolated the SARS Coronavirus smuggled out of Saudi Arabia which was sent to the Canadian scientist Frank Plummer, who ended up dead a week after GreatGameIndia's report was published.

President of Burundi Found Dead After Calling Covid-19 a Hoax and Expelled the WHO from the Country

The president of Burundi, Pierre Nkurunziza, dismissed covid19 as nonsense and expelled the World Health Organization from his country. Soon after, the president of Burundi died suddenly of a “heart attack”. Immediately after his death, Burundi's new President, Evariste Ndayishimiye, reversed every single one of his predecessor's Covid policies, including inviting the WHO back to the country. Ndayishimiye has declared COVID-19 to be the country's “biggest enemy.”

Tanzanian President Who Was Skeptical and Critical of Western Vaccines DEAD After Missing for Two Weeks

Tanzanian president John Magufuli has famously had his office submit for COVID-19 testing, five samples taken from animals and fruits (specifically, the samples were: goat, papaya, quail, jackfruit and one from motor oil). Surprisingly, four came back positive and one “inconclusive.” As a result, he banned the testing kits and called for an investigation into their origin and manufacture. Both President John Magufuli, and his health minister, Dorothy Gwajima, had announced that their country has no plans in place to recommend widespread use of COVID-19 vaccines in the African country. The announcement came a few days after Tanzania's President John Magufuli expressed concern about the safety and effectiveness of COVID-19 vaccines developed and manufactured in Western countries. President Magufuli said that the health ministry will only accept COVID-19 vaccines after Tanzania's experts have examined and certified them. President Magufuli reiterated that he will not allow Tanzanians to be used as guinea pigs in COVID-19 vaccine trials conducted by vaccine manufacturers. He warned that COVID-19 vaccines could be harmful and has been urging Tanzanians to stop living in fear and adopt common sense disease control measures and lead a healthy lifestyle. Almost immediately after the statements, President Magufuli disappeared from public life and, two weeks later, his death has been announced.
